THEME

The year 1949 marks the anniversary of a dramatic event in American history—the discovery of gold in California and the subsequent migration to the West. One hundred years ago, courageous men and women, lured by the prospect of fortunes in the Far West, moved across the continent in covered wagons and by horseback, traveled over mountains and the trackless plains, and braved dangers from Indians and starvation to reach their goal. These people opened to our country vast fields of endeavor.

During the last one-hundred years, our country has grown in many ways. As it broadened in expanse, so it has grown in power, wealth, industry and knowledge.

Today, we stand at the gateway of a new kind of civilization. The world of tomorrow is ours to formulate. The great discoveries of science, the wealth of those gold deposits, the power of industry and the knowledge of truth must be used by us to create a world of peace and unity for all mankind. It is our task.

School life gives to us the keys to open those gates. As the pioneer collected provisions before starting on his westward trek, so we collect stores of knowledge to fortify us in our journey through life. In our journey we must brave the dangers of hatred and deceit. These tools, given us in school, will be our arms against the world so that we may, like the pioneers, reach our goal successfully.

DEDICATION

In appreciation of his many contributions to the betterment of our school and community, we, the students of Jefferson High School, dedicate this, the nineteenth edition of the J-HI-LIFE, to our Superintendent, Mr. C. M. Watson.

ORGANIZATIONS

FIRST ROW (left to right) — Carol Anderson, John Glazier, Donald Kozak, David Wilson. SECOND ROW—Peggy Weatherston, Helen Ondrejovich, Donna Jennings, Mr. Watson. THIRD ROW—Ralph Porter, Donna Morgan, Donald Lynne.

This group consists of a representative from each home room. It is the governing body of the school. Under the direction of Mr. Watson it works with the other groups for the betterment of the entire school. The group sponsored a dance early in the fall and supervised the packing of baskets at Thanksgiving.

OFFICERS

President	John Glazier
Vice-President	Don Kozak
Secretary & Treasurer	Carol Jean Anderson

SIGMA ALPHA

The National Honor Society met Tuesday, April 5, at Platt R. Spencer High School at which time six new members from Jefferson were initiated. They were: Barbara Holmes, Frances Stevens, Gilbert Smith, Barbara Blough, Jack Haines, and Roy Ritter. Officers were elected to serve the remainder of this year and one half of next year. Jack Haines was elected president. Three seniors had already been elected to the Honor Society in their junior year. These were: Norman Overly, Doreen Smith, and Rita Ritter. The Jefferson National Honor Society is under the direction of Mr. Watson.

During the past year the Junior Red Cross Council has been an active organization in Jefferson High School.

After putting on an enrollment drive during the month of November, the Council was able to donate generously to the Junior Red Cross County Service Fund and the National Children's Fund. Overseas Gift Boxes were filled. At Christmas time the Council oversaw the filling of boxes for the County Home. A box of stuffed toys was sent to the County Chapter for distribution. Weekly the council sponsored round and square dances at noon in the auditorium.

DEBATE CLUB

The Debate Club was organized with approximately twenty-five people reporting at the first meeting. Plans were set forth for the acquirement of material for our topic, "Should the United Nations be Revised Into a Federal World Government."

Five members journeyed to the Ashtabula Library one evening for information concerning the subject. Tentative plans were made for the trip to Columbus, but due to an overcrowded schedule, the trip was postponed.

The prospect of a Debate Club next year is contingent upon the revision of debate by surrounding schools.

PROJECTION CLUB

The projection club is an organization started this year which includes the workers of the Visual Education Department.

These boys gave willingly of their time to work with Mrs. Euverard in supplying films for the school. One boys was chosen from each section of the school to work on this project.

A film library and equipment for the department is being built up through the cooperation of various film companies and the school.

With an organized club to operate the machines, the Visual Education Program in Jefferson High School is improved and promises to continue to improve in coming years.

This year, the Y-Teen Club was a very active group. Every month a new activity was held. Skating parties, steam baths, carol sings and sports nights made up the calendar for the year. At Christmas the club donated food and money to a needy family in Jefferson. Hobo day was held to reinforce the club theasury. For Thanksgiving, Christmas and Valentine's Day, the girls made favors for the Red Cross. The club ended a full year by giving its annual Spring frolic in the high school gym.

The Girls Intramural Association is made up of athletically minded girls from the ninth to twelfth grades. To earn a letter in this organization students must participate in advanced school intramural games, in volleyball and basketball tournaments and similar activities. Outside sport activities will also earn points toward a letter. Bowling, skating, riding, and bicycling are the most popular of these activities. This group gives the girls a chance to work for sports awards in place of the scheduled sports activities provided for boys.

THIRD ROW—Bruce Loomis, Willis Messenger, Bobby Carlson, James Haines, Arthur Rebovich, Edward Farabaugh, Blair Brininger, Robert Ollila, Billy Kemmer, Edward Clifton, David Wilson.

The singers of tomorrow—these junior members of the chorus will, next year, be eligible for membership in the regular high school chorus. The high school chorus is too large to include that group. However, these people love to sing just as much as any high school student. They work together in the ninth grade chorus and work into the regular choral group next year.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

For the school year of 1948-1949 the Jefferson Athletic Association has been in charge of all football and basketball games. These have been profitably conducted under the capable supervision of Mr. R. L. Shoaf. The Association was able to purchase a new scoreboard for use during the basketball season while all proceeds from football were turned over to the Memorial Field Fund. The highlight of the Association activities was on May 10 when the annual Athletic Banquet and dance was held.

CHEERLEADERS

This year our cheering section was lead by varsity cheerleaders, Betty Oliver, Verna Weaver, and Margie Rhodes assisted by the reserves, Dorothy Dahn, Donna Jennings, and Beverly Stoll.

For the first time, the varsity cheerleaders were given a chance to not only participate at our basketball games but also on our newly erected athletic field.

The girls have taken part in a total of twenty-two basketball games at which, we feel, they have done a wonderful job. For originality, the varsity chose to wear red and white scotch plaid skirts, white sweaters, and scotch plaid hats. The reserves wore red jumpers with white long-sleeved blouses. In recognition of their services, the varsity cheerleaders received letters at the annual Athletic Banquet in May.

This group of Junior High Students followed the younger Jeff-Hi-Team to all games. These three lead the Junior High students in support of their team with all the pep of the varsity. Dressed in red and white, they helped the team at the three home games and the three out of town games. Through the three wins and three losses, these girls did an excellent job of supporting their fellow-classmates. Three cheers for them!

As upperclassmen, this class has contributed much to the activities of the school.

The oustanding basketball players were Roy Ritter, Don Cook, and Dick Mead. Those representing the class in football were Roy Ritter, Don Kozak, Dick Mead, Don Cook, Clyde Means and Don Millard.

Roy Ritter, Barbara Blough and Jack Haines are to be taken into the National Honor Society. Those in Sigma Alpha are: Roy Ritter, Barbara Blough, Jack Haines, Gladys McClintock and Shirley Ensman. There are also several pledges to this organization.

Members of the class who have participated in scholarship tests are: Barbara Blough, Dick Moisio, Jack Haines, Roy Ritter, Don Walker, Don Millard, Jennie Marzec and Shirley Ensman.

Other extra-curricular activities in which members of the class have participated are: J-Hi-Life, Chorus, Band, One-Act-Play contests, track, G.I.A. and Y-Teens..

The word sophomore means wise fool. The years of learning makes them wise, but with two more years to go there is still a lot to learn. No longer are they listed among the junior high school group. Soon they will be upperclassmen. Now they take their places in the various organizations of the school—inpreparation for those duties. Many members are active in group activities. band, chorus, one act play and sports.

Here we are in the last year of Junior High. We were joined in September by a group of 20 students from Lenox who will help us to enlarge our number and really do something around school. We lost our president, Bob Bailes, when he moved to Florida. Ed Farabaugh, vice-president, became president, and Beverly Stoll was elected vice-president. The Freshman Class boasts two majorettes, two reserve cheerleaders and many band members.

HUMOR

19 SENIOR CLASS HISTORY 49

Fourteen of the thirty-nine seniors who will be graduated this year were among the bewildered tots who began their school days at Jefferson High School on that September day in 1937. This group consists of Shirley Calaway, Rita Ritter, Barbara Holmes, Marguerite Brooks, Doris McMillion, Doreen Smith, Donald Sharp, Mary Buza, David Carlson, John Glazier, Norman Overly, Marcille Housel, and Marjorie Rhodes. The other members of our class have joined from various cities and towns in the state of Ohio.

The days we spent in the first grade are vaguely remembered by most of us, although that very first day stands out in our memories above all the rest. Those poor first grade teachers. How they must have felt at the end of that day!

In the second grade we organized a rhythm band under the direction of Mrs. Bidlack. At the time, we thought it great fun, but now as we look back, we all wonder how we could have had any fun banging two sticks together.

During our fifth year of school, we presented a play entitled "Hansel and Gretel." This undertaking aroused the whole-hearted interest of every member of the class.

Our first days in the high school building will long be remembered. Although we felt a lot more grown up, down underneath we were a scared group of boys and girls—almost as nervous as on that very first day of school. We managed to struggle through those days somehow, and after a few days of roaming the corridors looking for the right room, we felt right at home.

In our Freshman year our class was increased when the pupils from Lenox joined us. They were Marilyn Hamilton, Norman Hamilton, Catherine Trenchan, Margaret Crew, Joan Huber, Doris Mae Rogers, Wayne Kaipainen, Paul Messenger, Eric Friedrich, Bob Koskinen, Maxine Giddings, Ed Rebovich and Betty Offenberg.

The outstanding event of that year was the freshman initiation. That event we shall never forget! That shocking machine certainly pepped us up. We surely were a pretty sight—the girls with their hair done in twenty-five braids and the baby bonnets perched on top of their heads, and the boys with their hair fixed in pin curls. The rest of our costume we would rather not mention.

During our Sophomore year, we chose Norman Overly as our president. He had also served in that office during our freshman year. We all felt quite pleased that we had left the name of "freshman" behind us.

Rita Ritter was president during our Junior year. The outstanding event of that year was the Junior play, "Willie's Week-End," under the direction of Miss Betty Rusher. Those taking part in the play were: Norman Overly, Doreen Smith, Frances Stevens, Marjorie Rhodes, Shirley Calaway, Bob Koskinen, Wilbur Morgan, Joan Huber, Paul Messenger, Priscilla Haven, and Verna Weaver. The play was very successful, thus leaving us with sufficient capital to give the Junior-Senior Prom, which was held at the Hotel Ashtabula.

1949—and Seniors! At last we had reached the place to which we had looked forward for a little over eleven years. We chose Gilbert Smith to serve as our leader during our last year at Jeff Hi. Three new members were elected into the National Honor Society in their Senior year. They were: Barbara Holmes, Frances Stevens, and Gilbert Smith. Norman Overly, Doreen Smith, and Rita Ritter had been taken into the Honor Society when they were Juniors.

The members of our class have participated in various other school functions and organizations. School spirit has been very high in our class. Many of the boys have gone out for basketball, football, and track. Four Senior girls have been cheerleaders during their high school years, and a number of the others have taken an active interest in such organizations as GIA, Y-Teens, J-Hi-Life, Chorus, and Band.

As commencement time grows nearer with each passing day, and the time for our leaving nears, we look back on all the happy days we have spent at dear, old Jeff Hi. The voyage has been long, but we will soon reach our port. And now, as we leave and take our places in the world, we wish to say that we shall never forget you, teachers and friends. We will always remember our dear, old Alma Mater.

CLASS PROPHECY OF THE 49'ERS

Silence! Shhh—We are now approaching obscure quarters of Jean Mowery, alias Madam Vangie Mahawalla, the Mystic Spiritualist. Our footsteps make a soft whispering sound as we cross the thick luxurious carpets. Our attention is now drawn to the magnificently carved table adorning the center of the barren room. On the table sits a large transparent crystal ball, surrounded by an array of lustrous scarlet velvet. At the table Madam Mahawalla arches her hands above the crystal ball and it becomes cloudy and turbulent. Now the ball is clearing and figures begin to take shape.

As we draw nearer to the crystal, who should we see, but Mrs. Gene Park, the former Verna Weaver, and her set of quintuplets, all sons. (We always knew Verna liked basketball.)

Once more the crystal ball becomes enveloped in misty gray and from the frothy clouds two smiling faces emerge. They are the faces of Doris Mae Rogers (now Mrs. Billy Fitzwater) and Doreen Smith (Mrs. Jim Rollman). They seem to be discussing something. Let's listen in and hear what they have to say.

Say, Doreen. Have you heard anything about Rita Ritter lately? I believe it's been two years since I've heard about her.

Oh, yes. She is teaching our little child prodigy, Jim, now. She's the fifth grade teacher at Jefferson.

Oh. Did you know that Ray Budd now poses for Dendem toothpaste ads? I always thought he had the cutest smile.

No, I hadn't heard, but just yesterday I got a letter from Maxine Giddings and she said she had gotten a job as hostess on the Bouncing Betsy Airline, and who do you think owns it? Ed Rebovich and Norman Hamilton.

Well for heaven's sake. I never knew those boys liked flying. I wonder what's happened to the rest of the class of '49.

Well, Marjorie Rhodes married Paul Bowers and they have a little boy and a girl now.

Now isn't that nice? I read in the paper just yesterday where Barbara Holmes has finally decided to give up her music career and settle down to married life with David. David now owns Carlson's General Store.

Yes, I read that also. Last night I was listening to Don Sharp's sports newscast and he said to be sure to listen at 10 p.m. for the match tonight between Paul Messenger and the wrestling champ of the world.

Now who would have thought that Paul would be a wrestler? He was so quiet in school. Well, I guess you learn something new every day. I read in the paper yesterday where Priscilla Haven and Mary Buza had taken over the Dripsie Doodle Nursery and that Wayne Kaipainen had accepted a position on their staff as doctor.

Yes, I saw that, But did you see that article right beside it? It said Margaret Crew has invented something that is a cross between a helicopter and a jet propelled car. It's called a Heliojet.

Yes, and did you read where Marguerite Brooks, the second Madam Curie, is now employed by Jo Ann Haas and Marjorie Medvetz as head scientist in their Dispose All Diapers plant?

Did you see where Norman Overly won another court case yesterday? Some girl was suing that up and coming actor of Colossal Films, Bob Koskinen, for breach of promise. Shirley Calaway, who can take shorthand at 250 wpm. was court stenographer, and Mary Mihm was having her first tryout for a court news reporter. That makes four from the class of '49. Quite a coincidence, huh?

Mary's reporting for the "New York Times" isn't she? I heard that our own Marcille Housel was just made Editor in Chief of that paper and guess who she hired for the Love Lorn Column? That tall, dark and handsome Neil Edmonds. He always was a lady killer.

Say, isn't it just wonderful about Doris McMillion's good luck? Of course, you know that she's made her first million. We always knew she'd go places with that name.

Have you heard that Johnny Glazier is the head coach at Ohio State University? With his athletic ability, though, what else could you expect?

By the way, didn't Gilbert Smith do a super job on the rebuilding of the Brooklyn Bridge? Of course, if it had not been for the untiring efforts of our latest President, Wilbur Morgan, and his faithful secretary, Betty Offenberg, Gilbert might not have been offered the contract.

You know, the funniest thing happened the other night. Beverly Benjamin was strolling down the street about 2 a.m. practicing a singing telegram which she was supposed to deliver for Catherine Trenchan, the head of the Bell Telephone Co. She raised such a rumpus that policeman Eric Friedrich was called upon to quiet her.

Remember how Marilyn Hamilton used to like Spanish? Well, I hear she is now a Spanish teacher, and has written a book entitled, "Why You Like Spanish."

Joan Huber is now modeling hats for the Mad Hatter Shoppe. The Mad Hatter Shoppe, by the way, is owned by none other than the class artist, Marilyn Bliss. They say her hats bring perfect bliss to all who wear them.

Well, I guess we haven't left anyone out, but if there are any changes or additions, write to your congresswoman, Frances Stevens, in care of The White House, Washington, D.C.

Once more the crystal ball becomes turbulent with a dusky mist and then turns placid and crystal clear.

Whenever you find the spare time, come again to Madam Vangie Mahawalla's and we will go on another trip into the future with the class of '49.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the senior class of one thousand nine hundred forty-nine, being of sound mind and body, do hereby in this our last will and testament, make public and bequeath our possessions to you, Juniors.

To Esther Buckhardt goes Doreen Smith's brisk, efficient manner.

Frances Stevens wills her A's in shorthand to Helen Ondrejovich for the whole of her senior year.

Doris Mae Rogers leaves to quiet Rosemary Kuncz her mischievous ways.

Verna Weaver has taken a brief survey and finds Louise Clinton the lucky girl to receive her engagement ring.

Johnny Glazier wills his athletic ability to Harry McConnell.

David Carlson gives his blond, curly hair to Roy Ritter.

Marguerite Brooks wills her playful smile to Marian Flack.

Rita Ritter leaves her ability to catch a man and drop him to Jennie Marzec.

To Paul Jones and Donald Kozak goes Wilbur Morgan's way with the women.

To Doris Means, Marcille Housel wills a few ounces.

Ray Budd leaves to Charles Stevens his snappy, sparkling eyes.

Doris McMillion wills to Gladys McClintock her sleek, black hair.

Marilyn Hamilton has decided to give Helen Gollon her glamourous look.

Joan Haas wills her short "bob" to Betty Oliver.

Oh yes, we'll give that Don "Sharp" look to "Dawn" Locy.

Gilbert Smith's towering height goes to mitey Bob Weir.

Tommy Smith receives Marjorie Rhodes' cheerleading ability.

Betty Offenburg's unobtrusive actions go to Shirley Tisch.

Catherine Trenchan's natural curly hair goes to Joan Race.

Shirley Calaway's figure is to be divided equally between Norma Eldred and Vivian Sheats.

Mary Mihm wills her "woman driver" skill to Don Millard and Dick Moisio.

Norman Overly's gentlemanly air goes to Arnold Newman.

Maxine Giddings wills her cute, flirtatious look to Barbara Blough.

Edward Rebovich donates his wooing ability to Robert Dennis.

To short Dick Mead goes Margaret Crew's height.

Barbara Holmes leaves her musical ability to Clyde Means.

Mary Buza's reserved manner goes to Margaret Nemeth.

Beverly Benjamin leaves her independent ways to meek Don Walker.

Eric Friedrich's agricultural stride goes to Shirley Ensman.

Jack Haines receives Norman Hamilton's ability to sleep in class—and get away with it.

Marilyn Bliss' precise English is given to Duane Lester, do not abuse it.

Priscilla Haven wills her ability to keep up with a turtle to Charlotte McClintock.

Marjorie Medvetz' tomboyishness goes to feminine Emma Larson.

Joan Huber's long brown hair is given to Jane Robinson.

Wayne Kaipainen wills his long name to Margaret Low.

Jean Mowery leaves her loud laugh to Oscar Larson. Oh, yes, she doesn't want it back.

Paul Messenger wills his thick, unruly hair to Dick Shore.

In witness thereof, we, the class of one thousand nine hundred forty-nine, have hereby signed, sealed, published, and declared our last will and testament on this 26th day of May in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and forty-nine.

"MA'S NEW HUSBAND"

On the night of November 4 the Senior Class displayed its talents by presenting a three-act play, "Ma's New Husband," under the direction of Mrs. James J. Ganas. The play took place in a small town in the east. Life was very calm and routine for Mrs. Lottie Dinsmore (Margaret Crew), a middle-aged widow, and her two young daughters, Lucy (Doreen Smith) and Marian (Margie Medvetz). But, tiring of her household duties, Mrs. Dinsmore decided to take a vacation alone, at a mountain resort.

Returning home she announced to her daughters that she had decided to end widowhood and marry Hercules Houser, (Robert Koskinen). The girls readily disapproved of a step-father, and tried to prevent the marriage.

Their cousin, Fred Seymour, (Norman Overly) arrived from South America. No one recognized Mr. Seymour, because he had been gone eight years. The girls finally convinced Fred it was best to try to prevent the marriage of their mother and this fraudulent imposter.

The girls also enlisted the services of their boy friends, Elwood (John Glazier) and Ned (Dave Carlson) to make war on Hercules. They engaged two night club entertainers Marguerita LaSylphe, (Marilyn Hamilton) and Isabella Chase (Margie Rhodes).

That was the welcome prepared for Hercules. Supposed-to-be irate husbands, jilted lovers and ex-wives—all poured upon him, a meek, colorless man. Mrs. Dinsmore refused to marry him.

Eventually, everything was straightened out and Hercules completely won Lucy and Marian; and, with the stage managers, Wilbur Morgan and Wayne Kaipainen the curtain closed with a gay success.

Alma Mater

Let's give a rah for Jefferson High School
And let us pledge her anew.
We will cheer her on to victory,
to our dear old high be true.
Let all our troubles be forgotten
And high school spirit rule;
We'll join and give our loyal efforts
For the good of our old school.
It's Jefferson High School, it's Jefferson High
The pride of everybody here.
Come on you old grads and join us young lads
It's Jefferson High School now we cheer — Rah! Rah!
For now's the time, boys, to make a big noise
No matter what the people say,
For there's none to fear, the gang's all here
So hail to Jefferson High School, Hail!

Class Song of 1949

From the school we're graduating
And we're leaving dear Jeff Hi;
We'll always remember the joys we have known,
And time cannot erase its works,
Its friendship and its woe.
For twelve years we have labored hard
And learned our lessons well;
And though we've had our trials at times
We tried and did not fail;
And so as we leave,
This tribute we pay to you;
Dear school, Dear teachers and Dear pals—
Goodbye, we'll sure miss you.
